In Preparation (Please meditate silently.)

"You cannot meet the Creator of the universe and remain the same. If the God who is all-powerful, all-knowing, and all-present comes to dwell within your soul, you would expect at least some minor disruption. I think there's a problem when people talk about meeting God or knowing God and yet remain unchanged by God. When the Creator chooses to dwell within His creation, there is transformation. If Jesus has come to dwell within you, you are not longer suited for a normal life."

Peace Prayer

Prelude "Be Thou My Vision – Irish Melody" arr. by C. Berry

▲ Call to Worship

When we stumble and our faith falters, God's faithfulness bears us along.

When our spirits soar and our faith grows strong, God's faithfulness lifts us to new heights of devotion.

When our daily duties distract, and our visions grow fuzzy, God's faithfulness pierces the fog to beckon us.

God's faithfulness endures forever! We lift our hearts in praise to the One who is our God this day and forever more!

▲ The Invocation

Prayer of Confession (unison)

O God, we confess that all of us sin and fall short of your glory. We are idle when we should be active. We listen to gossip more than we listen to the gospel. When called to serve we have excuses rather than excitement. We hesitate rather than hasten to do what you ask. Time is short for we know not when you will call us to judgment. Help us to be mindful of how precious each moment is and be quick to fill them with deeds of discipleship in response to your will.

Hear the burden of our hearts now as we offer to you our silent prayers:

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

The grace of Jesus Christ rescues us from ourselves.

All who accept God's gift are forgiven.

All who dwell in God's presence receive a new life.

Hear the good news:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen.

Scripture Lesson

Mark 10:46-52NIV

(pg.47, pew Bible)

<sup>46</sup>Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (which means "son of Timaeus"), was sitting by the roadside begging. <sup>47</sup>When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>48</sup>Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>49</sup>Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called to the blind man, "Cheer up! On your feet! He's calling you." <sup>50</sup>Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him.

The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see."

<sup>52</sup>"Go," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

Bless the Lord, O my soul;

and all that is within me, bless God's holy name!

Bless the Lord, O my soul,

and forget not all God's benefits

Gracious God, you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. You have fed us with the bread of life, and renewed us for your service. We give ourselves to you, and ask that our daily living may be part of the life of your kingdom. May our love be your love reaching out into the life of the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us to say, praying:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
